Changes in Youth Services

You may have noticed that Assistant Youth Services Librarian “Miss Melissa” has not been at the Youth Services Desk lately. That’s because she has a wonderful new job in her home state of North Carolina. She is the new Children’s Librarian for the High Point Public Library! We miss her but are very happy for her success.

The good news is we didn’t have to look far to find someone to step in. “Miss Kari” begins her new position as Assistant Youth Services Librarian June 1st. We are also happy for her!

The New Book Shelf

New books are arriving daily in Youth Services. One topic has been popular this spring. This April 15th marked the 100th anniversary of the sinking of the RMS Titanic. The following books describe the ship and chronicle that fateful night.

Nonfiction

Escaping Titanic: a Young Girl’s True Story of Survival by Marybeth Lorbiecki J 978.8 LOR

Titanic by Simon Adams J 910.91634 ADA

Titanic: Disaster at Sea by Philip Wilkinson J 910.91634 WIL

Titanic: the Disaster That Shocked the World by Mark Dubowski J 910.91634 DUB

The Titanic Disaster by Peter Benoit J 910.91634 BEN

Fiction

Return to Titanic Series by Steven Brezenoff JF BRE

Titanic Trilogy by Gordon Korman JF KOR

More materials about the Titanic are available in the Young Adult and Adult collections.
