IRENE LATHAM

Read Alabama 200 Event

Date: 8/27

Time: 4 p.m.

Location: Conference Room

Alabama author Irene Latham will be presenting at the Auburn Public Library to kick off the Library's Read Alabama 200 Author Series this fall. Latham is the author of many books, including two novels for children: Leaving Gee's Bend and Don't Feed the Boy. Winner of the 2016 ILA Lee Bennett Hopkins Promising Poet Award, her poetry books for children include Dear Wandering Wildebeest, When the Sun Shines on Antarctica, Fresh Delicious and Can I Touch Your Hair? (with Charles Waters), which was named a Charlotte Huck Honor book and a Kirkus Best Book of 2018. Irene lives on a lake in rural Alabama where she does her best to "live her poem" every single day by laughing, playing the cello and birdwatching.

DR. BILL DEUTSCH

Date: 9/3

Time: 4 p.m.

Location: Conference Room

Dr. Bill Deutsch is a Research Fellow Emeritus in the School of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Aquatic Sciences at Auburn University. He is a founding director of Alabama Water Watch, a community-based volunteer water monitoring program that began in 1992 and has certified 8,000 citizens who have monitored water at more than 2,400 sites on 900 waterbodies statewide. Based on 30 years of traveling around Alabama, studying rivers, and interacting with river-loving folks, he recently published the book, Alabama Rivers, A Celebration And Challenge that blends the human and natural history of our aquatic heritage.

EMILY BLEJWAS

Date: 9/24

Time: 4 p.m.

Location: Conference Room

Emily Blejwas is the Director of the Gulf States Health Policy Center in Bayou La Batre. She previously worked for the Economic & Community Development Institute at Auburn University and the Community Foundation of South Alabama. She serves on the board of the Alabama Folklife Association and the Bayou La Batre Area Chamber of Commerce, and holds degrees from Auburn University and Kenyon College. She is the author of The Story of Alabama in Fourteen Foods (2019) and Once You Know This (2017). Emily lives in Mobile with her husband and four children.

DR. RICHARD BAILEY

Date: 10/17

Time: 4 p.m.

Location: Conference Room

A native of Montgomery, Dr. Richard Bailey received his BS and MEd from Alabama State University in 1971 and 1972, an MA from Atlanta University in 1973, and the doctor of philosophy from Kansas State University in 1984. His research and speeches have focused on Alabama Reconstruction and Alabama African American history. His Neither Carpetbagger Nor Scalawags: Black Officeholders during the Reconstruction of Alabama, 1867-1878 marked only the second occasion in state history that a book by an African American was adopted by the state board of education as a supplemental text for classroom use. Another publication, They Too Call Alabama Home: African American Profiles, 1800-1999, takes a first-ever glance at state history. His thirty-year career with the civil service ended with his retirement from Maxwell Air Force Base in 2011.

JOHN DERSHAM

Date: 10/22

Time: 4 p.m.

Location: Conference Room

John Dersham is an internationally recognized, award-winning photographer, whose art photography and commercial work has been featured in gallery and other exhibits nationwide. He is one of the most sought-after photography instructors and speakers on the subject of photography in the Southeast. He developed his love of photography in his 30 years spent working at Kodak. Today, Dersham is President of DeKalb Tourism. My Alabama: John Dersham Photographs a State is the first published book devoted to his work.
